EPIPHANY — A SEASON OF GLOBAL AWARENESS FOR THE CENTRAL STATES SYNOD

SUGGESTIONS TO CONGREGATIONS FOR CELEBRATION IN EPIPHANY

It is suggested that each congregation in the Central States Synod consider the following:

Select a Sunday during the Epiphany season to do mission education about the Global partnerships and world-wide ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and to celebrate our companion church relationships with the Kote District in Papua New Guinea and with the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Urals, Siberia and the Russian Far East. A bulletin insert is available for that Sunday as well as short informational powerpoints and video. Both can be accessed on the Synod Website. Additional educational materials, prayers, music and other resources are available later in this packet.

Throughout the Epiphany season, include prayers for the missionaries sent and supported by the ELCA, for Young Adults in Global Mission (YAGMs), for our Companion Synods and for the Church throughout the world, especially the church in areas that are facing trials and enduring suffering such as the Church in Syria, Egypt, Sudan, and other places that you are aware of. Also, be sure and include prayers for Missionary Bradn Buerkle serving with the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Russia.

Schedule special programs such as a speaker from the synod who has visited a Companion Synod or someone who has served with Young Adults in Global Mission (YAGM). A list of persons with experience in the Companion Synods is included in this packet.

Plan other activities in accordance with the interests and traditions of your congregation. Some additional ideas might be to:

- Hang flags in the sanctuary of your church from other countries around the world. Ask members of your congregation to loan the church flags from other countries that they have in their homes. You might be surprised at how many flags from foreign lands are hanging in the homes of your members.
- Use bread from different countries and cultures for communion during Epiphany.
- Include children's messages that focus on other countries and cultures.
- See if there are people who have been on Companion Synod visits, mission trips to foreign lands or done a term or two with Young Adults in Global Mission and have them do a presentation in your congregation.

Be creative!
Make a financial contribution to the Companion Synod Program as a special offering or from the congregation’s benevolence budget. At this time our Synod has 3 projects that are priorities.

The First Priority is the support of Pastor Alexander Lapochenko who is serving St. Luke Lutheran Church in the city of Arsenyev in the Russian Far East. Our Synod has provided support for him over the past 4 years and has pledged to continue to do so for at least one more year. Our Synod needs to raise an additional $5000.00 during 2020 to meet this commitment.

The Second Priority is funding for 1 or 2 youth from Papua New Guinea to come to our Synod and serve as Counselors at Camp Tomah Shinga where they can learn songs, group building games, Bible Study techniques that they can take back to PNG with them. We had two young adults who spent the summer at Camp Tomah Shinga from late May through early August, 2017. It was an extremely positive experience for everyone including the two young adults, Noel and Natasha, campers, other camp counselors and many congregations that hosted the youth from PNG during their time here. We plan to have two more come to work at the camp in 2020. We need to raise an additional $4000.00 during 2020 to cover.

The Third Priority is the restricted travel fund. These funds help defray part of the cost for visitations both to and from our companion churches. Members of the delegations visiting our Partner Synods are responsible for the majority of the cost of the trip. However, the Synod seeks to provide some financial aid to the travelers so these visitations are available to all members of the synod including those with limited financial resources.

Another project: We are also working to provide scholarship help for a bright young leader of the Kote District who plans to pursue a masters degree in Leadership Development at the Catholic University in PNG. Pastor Walter Tuenzac’s plans have the blessing of his district and that ELCPNG national church and leadership is a critical need in PNG. We are seeking an additional $1500.00 for his studies in 2020.

Congregations are also encouraged to give to the Russian Far East which helps all nine congregations in the Russian Far East continue their ministries.

For more information or if you have any questions, please contact Pr. Gary Teske at teskimost@gmail.com or at 785-393-0965.

All Contributions should be sent to the Office of the Central States Synod with a note that clearly designates the project for which it was sent.

A BRIEF INTRODUCTION TO THE FAR EASTERN REGION OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH IN ASIAN RUSSIA AND THE NINE CONGREGATIONS WHO HAVE RISEN FROM THE ASHES FOLLOWING YEARS OF PERSECUTION AND REPRESSION.

It took three years for the Soviets to reach Vladivostok, and once there, they knocked down church steeples and destroyed the bells. They acquired all properties and assets, art and literature of the church for the state. Many of these items can still be seen in the Hermitage, never to be returned. There are costs measured in material things as well as the lost lives and unmarked graves known only to God. Sacred spaces were turned into archive buildings, museums, apartments and even, in St. Petersburg, a swimming pool. Persecution is actually an inadequate word to describe the attempted destruction of the church in Russia.

Built on a rock, the church must stand, even when steeples are falling! And stand she did! After 70 years of oppression the important work of rebuilding has begun. The sacred is being reclaimed! Through the work of many called and dedicated Christians in Russia as well as Germany, the United States, and other parts of the world, God’s word is being proclaimed and lives are being changed in the most powerful way. It’s called accompaniment. Through our Companion Synod Partnership with the Far East of Russia, Central States congregations are joining their brothers and sisters in Russia by supplementing the salary of Rev. Alexander Lapochenko in Aresenyev; building churches; beginning social projects and missions; exchanging gifts and faith; and learning from one another as we walk together. Lasting friendships are being formed.

We invite you to see with eyes of faith the church, the body of Christ as she rises from the ashes into the new dawn of hope. Join us! We can help you connect; we can help you have a much larger sense of church and of yourself.

Facts and Information about our Companion Synod in Eastern Russia

Russia is the largest country in the world by area, at about twice the size of the United States, spanning 11 time zones. It is the 9th largest country by population, with about half as many people as the United States. The Evangelical Lutheran Synod in the Urals, Siberia and Far East (ELSUSFE) is one of two synods that comprise the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Russia (ELCR). The other is the Evangelical Lutheran Synod in European Russia (ELCER). The Central States Synod has a companion relationship with the ELCUSFE, and is excited about the growing relationships with new friends in Siberia as well as existing relationships in the Far East. Over the years, we have had the strongest ties to St. Paul Lutheran Church in Vladivostok, plus the following eight congregations:
1. St. Marie’s, Ussurijsk

This congregation is about 60 miles from Vladivostok and owns their own flat where they hold worship services. They work with a girls’ orphanage helping the youth get training to become beauticians, drivers, and computer programmers. They teach the younger girls how to crochet, knit, and sew. They sponsor a camp and learning opportunities for the youth during the summer. St. Marie’s has a preacher as well as a person who coordinates the work between the congregation and the girls’ home. In the past St. Marie’s has had a close relationship with Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in Wichita, KS.

2. St. Luke’s, Arsen’yev

St. Luke’s began in 1999 and is located a little over 200 miles from Vladivostok. St. Luke’s has an ordained pastor, Rev. Alexander Lapochenko and the congregation consists of quite a few young people who are well educated. They are one of the few congregations to have a church building rather than worshipping in a flat or borrowed space. They do a lot of community service ministry, such as helping older people especially those that are ill, having sports teams, helping with forestry, and offering Bible study and English classes. They have a puppet ministry and each year present the Christmas story and a concert. Trinity in Great Bend, Kan. has established a strong relationship with St. Luke’s in Arsenyev. At the request of then Bishop Schaude and the Synod of the Urals, Siberia and the Far East, the Central States Synod has committed itself to providing financial support for Pastor Alexander Lapochenko, Pastor of Arsen’yev. Congregations interested in contributing to this project can contact the synod office or Gary Teske at 785-393-0965 or teskimost@gmail.com.

3. St. Katharine’s Komsomol’sk

St. Katharine’s began in 1999 with five women. Today there are around 100 that range in age from infants to retired people. They work closely with a children’s home. They collect clothing for the children and visit the home on a regular basis to teach Bible lessons, give art lessons, and have holiday parties. They have a very active women’s group that does Bible study and participates in the World Day of Prayer each year. They have an active youth group that does Bible study and community service projects. Atonement in Overland Park, Kansas, began a relationship with St. Katharine’s in 2003 and sent two individuals to Komsomol’sk in the summer of 2004 as well as arranging for someone to visit the US during the summer of 2006. With the help of Atonement St. Katharine’s purchased a flat where they now meet for worship, study and ministry activities.

4. St. Johann, Khabarovsk

St. Johann is a vibrant congregation that is about ten years old and has 60+ members. They have a good music ministry, which attracts young people. They also have a puppet ministry, help with a children’s home, and collect food and clothing to be distributed to people in need. They meet in a lecture hall of a hospital for worship and Sunday school. St. John’s has a preacher and Bible study leader as well as an administrator. One of the important projects of the congregation is social rehabilitation of children with mental problems. A member of St. John’s goes weekly to a children’s home and works with them through music therapy.
5. Blagoveshchensk

This congregation was started in 2000 and is quite small. They are located on the Amur River, across from China, about 700 miles from Vladivostok. They have a preacher, and they have use of a classroom in the German Cultural Center for two and half hours each Sunday.

6. St. Matthew’s, Chita

St. Matthew’s was started in January of 2000 and is located 1500 miles west of Vladivostok—a trip that takes two days and three nights by train. They do not have a preacher or a regular place to hold worship services.

7. St. Mark’s—Magadan

Magadan, about 1800 miles north of Vladivostok, was founded by Stalin in 1935 as the headquarters for the Gulags in that area. St. Mark’s started in 2000. Holy Cross in Overland Park, Kansas, began a relationship with St. Mark’s in 2001. Since then several visits between the congregations have been made by people from Holy Cross and from Magadan. With the help of Holy Cross St. Mark’s was able to purchase a flat in 2004 where they celebrate worship, conduct Bible study, do social ministry in the area of drug and alcohol abuse, and offer housekeeping and handicraft classes.

8. Sokol

St. Mark’s in Magadan started this congregation in 2006. It meets regularly for worship in a private home. Their leader is currently taking classes at the seminary near St. Petersburg.

Recent visitations to and from Russia.

In the last 10 years there have been 3 visitations to Russia by groups from the Central States Synod and three more by individuals who traveled to Russia to participate in classes and seminars. There have also been visits to the Central States Synod by Archbishop Dietrich Brauer, Dean Manfred Brockmann, Pastor Alexander Lapochenko, lay leader Yevgeny Slinshenko and Missionary Bradn Buerkle. In addition to visits to the Russian Far East, individuals and groups from the Synod have visited Bishop Alexander Scheiermann in Omsk, a congregations in Krasnoyarsk in Central Siberia led by Pastor Gleb Pivavarov and other ministries in St. Petersburg and Moscow.
A BRIEF INTRODUCTION TO THE KOTE DISTRICT OF THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH OF PAPUA NEW GUINEA

The Central States Synod’s relationship with the Kote district of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Papua New Guinea began with a trip to Papua New Guinea by Bishop Emeritus, Charles Maahs in the late 80s, shortly after the formation of the ELCA. The first visitation to the Kote District by a group from the CSS was in 1997 and was led by Bishop Charles Maahs. Since that time there have been many more companion synod visitations to the Kote District by groups and individuals from the Central States Synod and numerous visits to the Central States Synod by individuals from the Kote District. The main purpose of these visits is to build relationships between our CoSyn Christians and the people of the Central States Synod. This is in accord with the ELCA Global Mission Model of “Accompaniment” (see an explanation of accompaniment at the end of the packet). The sharing of our common faith by being together, talking together, working together and sharing stories, food, lodging, joys and burdens from our respective contexts invariably deepens and enriches the faith and lives of everyone involved.

The Companion Synod Relationship has also led to more tangible fruits. Members of the CSS traveled to Papua New Guinea in 2014 and delivered 8 computers, one for each circuit of the district and spent a week doing computer training for the operators. In 2016 together with youth traveling to PNG to visit the youth of the Kotte District, two of the trainers returned to do additional computer training and deliver two more computers.

In the past, members of the CSS-ELCA have taught classes in preaching, music and our call to ministry. Visitors to Papua New Guinea have helped build Habitat houses and provided funds for scholarships to Balob Teachers College and to do repairs to the Sattelberg Women’s Leadership Training School. Some of the CSS Congregations were sponsor congregations for Missionary Ann Klavano who taught at Senior Flierl Seminary in the Finschhafen area of Papua New Guinea until her recent return to the US.

Visitors from Papua New Guinea to the Central States Synod have included two of the district Presidents and various other district, church and circuit leaders. Youth from Papua New Guinea have visited our Synod and attended the National Youth Gathering with youth from the Central States Synod and in 2017, two young adults spent the summer working as counselors at Camp Tomah Shinga through a joint effort of the Companion Synod Team, Camp Tomah Shinga and the ELCA International Camp Counselor program. There are plans to have two more from Papua New Guinea at Camp Tomah Shinga again in the summer of 2020.

The Kote District is the area where the first German Lutheran Missionaries began their work in the late 1880s and so it is one of the oldest districts in the church. However, it is a very rural area with limited exposure to the rapid westernization and economic development that has been going on in other areas of the country. They have set two priority areas in which they desire help from the Central States Synod going beyond the ever present goal of building and strengthening relationships. Those two areas are the development of internet communication that can help the 8 circuits and many congregations stay better connected in their rugged remote environment, and the development of better stewardship of the resources they do have.
Early exploratory patrols in the first half of the last century were largely to find precious metals and minerals in the mountains of that island. Early on some gold was found and gold mining commenced in some areas. However, in the past 25 years it has come to light that the island of New Guinea is home to extensive reserves of gold, silver, copper, oil, natural gas and of course timber from the rain forests and fish in the waters that surround it. The people of Papua New Guinea are dealing with an onslaught of companies seeking to develop these valuable natural resources, something that brings the possibility of extensive economic benefits to the people, but also the likelihood of the corruption of political and community leaders, the disruption of tribal life and land ownership, the loss of their unique culture and the degradation of their environment. The people of Papua New Guinea and of the Kote District could benefit greatly from having faithful, principled partners who will walk with them through the radical changes that are coming to their country and who regard them first as God’s precious people and not as the owners of land that is rich in natural resources, or as a labor force to be exploited.

Russian Recipes

Mushroom and Barley Soup

- 2 tbsp cooking oil
- 2 tbsp butter
- ½ cup pearl barley
- 2 medium onions, thinly sliced
- ½ pound mushrooms, thinly sliced
- 8 cups chicken bouillon
- 1 large carrot, thinly sliced
- 1 tsp salt
- ¼ teaspoon freshly ground pepper
- ½ cup sour cream (optional)
- 2 tbls minced parsley or fresh dill weed

Heat the oil and butter in a large soup kettle. Add barley and onions. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, for 3 to 5 minutes. Add mushrooms and cook for 4 to 5 minutes longer, or until the mushroom liquid has evaporated. Add chicken bouillon, carrots, salt and pepper. Bring to the boiling point and skim. Reduce heat to low and simmer, covered, for about 1 hour, stirring frequently. Remove from heat and stir in sour cream. Sprinkle with parsley or dill before serving.

Borshok (beet soup)

- ¾ pound beets
- 7 to 8 cups chicken consommé
- salt
- freshly ground pepper
- 2 tsp sugar (optional)
- ½ cup dry white wine
- ½ cup water
- sour cream

Trim and scrub beets. Cook beets in boiling water until tender. Drain and cool. Peel and cut either into thin slices or into ¼ to ½-inch dice. Place the beets in a bowl (not aluminum). Add wine and water. There should be enough liquid to cover the beets; if not, add a little more water. Let beets stand at room temperature for 2 to 3 hours or cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate overnight. At serving time, heat the consommé and add the beets, together with their liquid, salt and pepper to taste and sugar if you are using it. Cook, covered, over low to medium heat for 5 to 10 minutes. Strain the soup into a soup tureen or into cups and top each serving with 2 to 3 teaspoons sour cream. Serve hot.
Salmon Roll
(refrigerated and served cold)

½ lb salmon (cured or canned)
½ pound cream cheese, at room temperature
¼ to ½ tsp dried dill
1 two-ounce jar pimiento-stuffed olives, drained

If using cured salmon, grind fine in food processor but do not liquefy. Combine salmon and cream cheese in a large bowl. Add dill weed. With wooden spoon or electric mixer, blend thoroughly until the mixture is smooth. Transfer mixture to large sheet of aluminum foil.

Using a spatula spread the mixture into a rectangle measuring 12 by 4 inches. Place drained olives lengthwise in a row in the center of the salmon mixture. With spatula, bring the mixture over the olives, forming a closed roll measuring 12 inches in length. Turn the ends of the foil over the ends of the salmon roll and bring up the sides of the foil to enclose the salmon roll completely. Chill in the refrigerator for at least 6 hours or until firm enough to slice. To serve, peel aluminum foil carefully off the salmon roll. Cut into 24 half-inch slices. Place slices on serving plates and garnish with cherry tomatoes, sprigs of watercress, radish roses and spring onions.

Kasha
(Farina pudding served hot or cold with fruit)

3 cups milk
1 cup light or heavy cream
1/3 cup sugar
1/3 cup farina or semolina or Cream of Wheat (not the quick cooking kind)
½ tsp vanilla
½ cup slivered blanched almonds; lightly toasted
1 to 1 ½ cups well-drained fresh stewed or canned fruit such as cherries, thinly sliced peaches, or berries
Apricot Sauce (see below)

Combine milk and cream in heavy saucepan. Add sugar and bring to boiling. Lower heat. Add farina (or semolina or Cream of Wheat) slowly, stirring with a wooden spoon. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, for about 10 minutes, or until mixture is thickened and smooth. Stir in vanilla. Turn into a serving dish and sprinkle with toasted almonds. Arrange fruit around pudding. Serve warm with Apricot Sauce on the side. Note: If to be served cold or chilled, cool before adding almonds and fruit.

Apricot Sauce

1 cup apricot jam or preserves
2 tsp cornstarch
2/3 cup water
2 tsp lemon juice or cognac

Put jam into a small heavy saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until hot and melted. Remove from heat. Sprinkle cornstarch into the water and stir until smooth. Return saucepan to heat and stir in cornstarch mixture. Cook, stirring constantly, until clear. Remove from heat and stir in lemon juice or cognac. Turn into sauceboat and serve hot with Kasha.
FOOD FROM PAPUA NEW GUINEA

If you should want to get a literal taste of Papua New Guinea, you would want the meal to include Sweet Potatoes, Yams and Taro. They would be boiled, baked or roasted but not candied as we do for Thanksgiving and Christmas. They eat leafy greens such as spinach and cabbage. Other vegetables have been introduced and are a regular part of their diet. The most important thing is that the sweet potatoes and vegetables are cooked in Coconut milk. A major part of their diet is fruits including pineapples, bananas, oranges (although their oranges are more like our lemons) and Papayas. If they eat meat, it is most often chicken (truly free range and home grown) or fish, fresh caught out of the Solomon Sea and even the meat is sometimes cooked in coconut milk.

SONGS AND PRAYERS FROM OUR COSYN CHRISTIANS.

Worship ideas from Papua New Guinea

For the prayers, congregations could conclude the petitions and respond as follows:

A: Long Marimari bilong God; (God, in your mercy)
C: Harim prea bilong mipela (Hear our prayer)

If there is a processional, consider using one of the songs that could incorporate drums. Even if it is not the drumming rhythm of PNG, it would be a reminder of how important the “Kundu” and “Garamut” is to them. If a conch shell is available, begin worship with the blowing of the conch shell, or, as some congregations in the highlands do it, using a length of plastic pipe or hose. If someone can play a brass instrument, they can make the sound of a conch shell using one of those local options. A shell or length of bamboo or pipe is blown the same way a person blows a trumpet, trombone or tuba.

ACCOMPANIMENT AS THE MODEL FOR MISSION RELATIONSHIPS

The ELCA has carefully considered means and methods of mission appropriate to this era. “Accompaniment” is the ELCA model for global mission relationships. This model is described fully in the ELCA document Global Mission in the Twenty-First Century: A Vision of Evangelical Faithfulness in God’s Mission (available at www.elca.org/globalmission). A primary focus of accompaniment is the mutual respect of the companion with whom mission is shared. Each party to the relationship has the primary responsibility for mission in its area while walking together in mutual support as each carries out its mission responsibilities.

Accompaniment insists that old assumptions be challenged and that we listen to companions’ interpretation of their vision of mission and reality. Accompaniment challenges us to overcome the donor-receiver model whereby the Northern (or Western) partner assumes the role of the donor and the Southern (or Eastern) companion that of the receiver. Accompaniment recognizes the two-way dimension for ministry through a mission relationship.

The Central States Synod Companion Synod Team suggests several steps for utilization of the Accompaniment Model for ministry relationships. These steps are appropriate for congregations, area ministries, and other organizations in the Synod that are seeking to develop or expand ministry relationships with companion synods:

- Connect with a companion synod or with a church body in the companion synod (options described below).
  - Build relationships with the companion synod. This relationship building can be accomplished through mission trips in both directions, correspondence, e-mails, and other forms of communications.

- Commit to making the companion relationship first a prayer partnership.

- Plan ahead. Consult with the Synod Companion Synod Team for critical information on ELCA and Central States Synod relationships with the companion church, its structures, and other partner relationships.
  - Become acquainted with any written agreements the ELCA or Central States Synod has with the companion church.

- Develop a relationship with a companion church body. Develop a covenant relationship with the companion church body that gives vision and direction for the relationship. Send a delegation to the companion organization. Receive and support a return visit.

- Provide resources and support for the companion church body to use in mission. However, support should follow relationship building (connection).

- Keep the Synod Companion Synod Team informed of your relationships and activity. This will assist in providing information to others that are considering the development of relationships with a companion church.
